END OF LIFE'S LONG JOURNEY

Eighty-Five Years of An Upright
Life Left as a Heritage by J.
M. Dean to His Children.

Joseph Madison Dean, a most highly esteemed citizen of the Iron Hill section, was called to his reward Thursday afternoon, Sept., 25th., 1913, at 5 o'clock.

He had been in feeble health from the diseases incident to old age, for a year past and had never fully recovered from the shock he received when his life companion was taken the 27th., of last November. Since that time he has made his home with his only daughter, Mrs. Ida Morse, and has received from her and her family every care and attention which willing hands and loving hearts could bestow. He has been bedfast much of the time and a great sufferer but has patiently and uncomplainingly awaited the summons from his maker to come up higher.

He was born near Bethlehem, in Caldwell county, October 22th 1827, and was therefore in his 86th., year, and was the oldest son of Alexander Maxwell Dean. His mother was Miss Anna Yates. His grandmother was Miss Rachel Rebecca Putnam, a lineal descendant of General Israel Putnam of Revolutionary fame.

He was married Nov., 1st., 1854, to Miss Caroline Isabel Clement, daughter of Granville Clement, and related to the large family of that name in this county. The union was blessed with ten children, seven of whom survive. They are James B., of Detroit, Tex., Robt H., of the U. S. Geological survey, St. Louis, Mo., W. Alexander, of Clarksville, Tex., Mrs. Ida Morse, T. Marion, Joseph N. and Edward F., all of Iron Hill. Mrs. Annie Lemon, his oldest daughter, died in 1910. Clement C. in 1892 and Isom the youngest child died of measles in 1885 when a youth of 9 years. He is surrounded by two sisters, Mrs. Josephine Adams, of this city, and Miss Nannie Dean, of this county, also three brothers, Thomas L. Dean, of Barstow, Tex., Alfred Armstrong Dean, of this county and Jobe Edward Dean, of Crider, Caldwell county.

Mr. Dean had held membership in the Presbyterian church U. S., here since its organization moving his membership from Pisgah church, Lexington, Ky., where he united with the church in early life when he resided at Versailles, Woodford, county Ky., with an uncle.

His stay there however was short for in 1849 he crossed the plains in a prairie schooner enroute to the gold fields of California, being six months enroute by ox-team. He did not remain long in the west but returned on a steamer to Panama and thence to New York and then back to his old Kentucky home, and this county had been his home for near three-fourths of a century and the Dean homestead near Iron Hill his residence for over fifty years.

He was a pure man, of highest christian integrity and was loved and honored by his neighbors and every one who came in touch with him.

The funeral was preached Friday afternoon by his pastor, Rev. H. V. Escott, of this city, at Sugar Grove, and the eulogy

UGLY AFFAIR AT PRINCETON

Frank Cliff And Son, of Fredonia,
Try to Pull Off a Military
Wedding in Tennessee.

No little excitement was created in Princeton, Ky., Saturday forenoon when Frank Cliff and his son, Lonnie Cliff, two prominent men of Fredonia, Ky., came to Princeton in an automobile, went to the home of Wayne Hamilton, one of the most prominent young men of the city, entered the house and gave him a beating, and then forcibly dragged him from his home and made him get into the machine. They then proceeded to Clarksville, Tenn., where they were met by the daughter of Mr. Cliff, Miss Lela Cliff. An attempt was then made to force Hamilton to marry the girl, whom the father and brother alleged he betrayed. However the Princeton authorities, having been notified by Hamilton's family of his kidnapping and the intention of his captors to force him into marriage had telegraphed and the Clarksville authorities refused to issue the license. Finding themselves blocked here the Cliffs, with Hamilton still in their possession, caught the Louisville & Nashville train to Erin, Tenn., but Cliff and his son were arrested on their arrival, and forced to release young Hamilton. Hamilton immediately took the train for Princeton and a short time later Miss Cliff went to her home at Fredonia. Cliff and his father were released after their captive had left Erin and they started for Fredonia, stopping off at Hopkinsville. Yesterday afternoon sheriff Henry Towery, of Caldwell county accompanied by two deputies, went to Clarksville to arrest the two Cliffs but arrived there to find they were in Hopkinsville. Sheriff Towery immediately took the train back to Hopkinsville and there found the two men, whom he took in charge and brought back to Princeton. Arriving at Princeton they were placed under a $500 bond each and will be tried on the technical charge of forcibly detaining a man against his will, and assault and battery.

The people involved are members of the most prominent families of the county and the trouble caused a furore among the citizens of both towns. It is expected that trouble will result yet from the attempted forcing of Hamilton to wed the girl, in spite of the fact the relatives of the young woman allege he committed the grave offense charged by them against him. to his memory was never surpassed in that venerable structure, which was crowded to overflowing with relatives, friends and admirers of the stalwart character, who has now gone from their midst to his long rest. The interment took place immediately after in the Sugar Grove cemetery and the remains of the beloved and honored citizen were laid to rest beside those of his wife, who was laid to rest there on Thanksgiving day last November.

DAUGHTREY-ALVIS FAMILY REUNION

Given in Honor of Clyde Daughtrey, A Wife, Who Was Miss Tan Alvis.

On Sunday morning, Sept. 21, the members of the two families met at the pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Daughtrey, near Hebron, to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Daughtrey, of Sikeston, Mo., who were to return to their home the day following.

The weather was cool and dreary, but within the home, all was sunshine and happiness; every old fashioned fireplace crackled and sparkled with warmth and cheerfulness.

Dinner was spread at 1:30 o'clock in the long back hall and all thirty-eight ate at the same table. One simple word describes the dinner in every way, no one could say more and none could say less and do justice to the feast. The dinner in every particular, was EXCELLENT.

The afternoon was spent in talking of the "by-gone days, when you and I were sweethearts in the days of yore."

There was but one thing to mar the pleasure of the day, and that was the absence of some members of the family, but they were not forgotten.

Just before the hour of parting some songs were sung, after which the many guests bade their visitors goodbye, wishing them the richest of blessings.

Those present were—Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Daughtrey, Mrs. Sue Alvis, Miss Lizzie Alvis, Jack Alvis, Mr. and Mrs. John Alvis, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Daughtrey and children, Mr. and Mrs. Will Alvis and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Daughtrey, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Alvis and son, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Daughtrey, Mrs. Lilly Daughtrey and son, Louis Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moore and little daughter, Rebecca, Oral and Ray Planary, Mrs. Mary Williams and son, Lee Rankin and family.

Held Up And Robbed Of Cash At Princeton

Princeton, Ky., Sept. 27.—J. A. Pickell, of Knoxville, Tenn., was held up and robbed here tonight of $45 in cash, his hand was badly wrenched and his finger almost pulled out of the socket in the robber's effort to take a diamond ring off of his finger. The robbery took place in Washington Street, near the Princeton Hotel, where the victim was registered. The job was done by two men. One held a pistol on Mr. Pickell while the other went through his pockets. Mr. Pickell is a member of the Kyle-Gettys Company, underwear and hosiery manufacturers at Knoxville. A few minutes after the robbery of Pickell the home of Mayor John C. Gates, on the same street was entered by burglars.

Silver At Rosi-Clare

A new lode of silver, lead and fluor spar 16 feet wide and of unknown depth has been struck in the Rosi-Clare mine. This vein has been side-stepped for over a quarter of a mile through parallel drift and is still found to be 16 feet at the top. Hurrah for Supt. Hanson who has doubled the output of the mines since he came, and hurrah! we say for little old Hardin County. Hardin Era.

JUDGE GORDON WARNS GROWERS

Against Disorder In the Tobacco
Regions.—Delivers Very Strong
Charge Against Leaders.

Madisonville, Ky., Oct. 2.—The Hopkins Circuit Court began its sessions in this city, with Judge J. R. Gordon presiding. Three murder cases are to come up for trial this term. Nearly half a hundred divorce cases are to come before the court, besides the commonwealth cases, which number sixty-eight.

Judge Gordon made an able address at the opening of the session and said, in part, in reference to the tobacco troubles, that he condemned the would be leaders who go over the country and stir up strife, and advise the working people and farmers in reference to organization that they were in for personal gain. He said these leaders would not know which end of the tobacco plant to stick in the ground. He told them that it was personal gain they were for, and to beware of them. Judge Gordon stated the day would come when such disgraceful things would become a stench to thinking people.

People have the idea that these things never occurred before in history, but back in 1679 people raised so much tobacco in Virginia that it was not profitable. They got together and before the House of Burgesses asking that a law be passed prohibiting the raising so much of the weed. Not getting the law in 1680 the people went out and scraped the plant beds and destroyed whole farms in many cases. Finally the law came to the rescue and such deeds were made treason and punishable with death and confiscation of all property. Speaking further, Judge Gordon said a man should think before joining any organization with lawless intent, and when one joined such conspiracy loses his identity, freedom and self-control.

Democratic Postmaster At Uniontown After Sixteen Years.

After four presidential terms, during which time the Republicans have been in power, the local post office will return to the Democrats next Wednesday when H. A. McIntyre will assume charge of the office.

Mr. McIntyre was appointed recently on the recommendation of Congressman A. O. Stanley and this week received authority to enter the duties of the office on October 1st.

This will mark the first change made in the politics of this office in fifteen years. Mrs. Claude Thomason was the Democratic appointee, who retired in 1898.—Telegram.

Crayne.

Our representative J. B. McNeely made a business trip over to Crayne Saturday. Crayne is a hustling little burg. There are two churches—both Presbyterians, one school, two Sunday schools' two general stores, one drug store, and barber shop, A. F. McKinney proprietor. Mr. Brown is the depot agent. Dr. Vernon Fox, takes care of the sick. There are two blacksmith shops, one grist mill. The coal dealer, Mr. Weldon is also the postmaster. We can't tell all there is at Crayne. May she continue to grow in power and beauty. The Record Press is ready to lend a helping hand to push her onward and upward.

METHODIST

Of Louisville District End With Appointments.

Campbellsville, Ky., Sept., 29.—The Methodist conference concluded its sixty-fifth annual session when Bishop Wilson announced his appointments. Quite a battle was waged in the election of clerical delegates to the general conference. Gross Alexander was elected on the third ballot. Rev. J. S. Thompson, of Owensboro, was elected on the eight ballot. The board of missions reported progress and said approximately that twenty thousand had been raised during the year for home and foreign missions. Only two ministers of the conference have died during the year, the Rev. B. M. Messick and Rev. T. V. Joiner.
